

Asheville Sister Cities and The Boundary End Center present:

ANCIENT AND CONTEMPORARY MAYA POTTERY, TEXTILES, WRITING, AND AGRICULTURE

A fundraiser for Asheville Sister Cities' Mexican Committees and The Boundary End Center

Saturday March 28th from 11:30am–6ish

Paul Worley, Ph.D., Associate Professor of Global Literature at Western Carolina University

Contemporary Maya textiles and writing

Dr. Jillian Jordan, George Stuart Residential Scholar at the Boundary End Center

Ancient Maya pottery production with hands on demonstrations and microscopic analysis

Richard. A. Diehl, PhD, Professor Emeritus, University of Alabama

Ten Thousand Years of Mexican Foodways and Farming

Space is limited!

To reserve your spot,
please RSVP to loel.davis@gmail.com

$40 for adult ticket, $20 for student ticket
with student ID

Please bring check or cash
to The Boundary End the day of the event.

For more information on the speakers
and their presentations, please visit:
<https://boundaryend.com>
OR <http://www.ashevillesistercities.org>

DAY OF SCHEDULE:

Please meet at 11:30am at The Big Ivy Community Center: 540 Dillingham Rd, Barnardsville, NC 28709 for a provided lunch and introduction to the day. We'll then carpool to the Boundary End Center and enjoy lectures by Dr. Jordan and Dr. Diehl followed by a light snack and drink break. After the break, we'll enjoy Dr. Worley's lecture and then experience a tour of the Boundary End Center's Library.

***please be aware that the Boundary End Center is rural and a bit rugged. Please wear comfortable clothes and closed toed tennis shoes.